

Vignola

For Immediate Release
June 19, 2009

Contact: Thom Householder, Front Burner PR
(207) 699-5501, thom@frontburnerpr.com

Vignola Welcomes Summer with Evening Showcasing Local Oysters and New Wines

Tasting features Winter Point oysters and one dozen new additions to city's favorite wine list.

Portland, Maine – Nationally recognized restaurant and local favorite Vignola (10 Dana Street, www.vignolamaine.com) will launch its summer activities with an event perfect for Maine's warm weather when it hosts a tasting of local Winter Point oysters and new additions to its summer wine list on Thursday, July 2, from 6 – 8 pm.

Winter Point Oysters and New Wines showcases freshly shucked Winter Point oysters from nearby West Bath, as well as one dozen new white and rosé wines added this summer to Vignola's award-winning wine list. Portland Phoenix readers voted Vignola home of the city's "Best Wine List" in 2007, 2008, and 2009.

"This is a fun event to launch us into the full summer season," noted Executive Chef and Co-Owner Lee Skawinski. "Enjoying cold oysters and crisp wines on the patio as the sun sets makes for an evening that's hard to beat."

The Winter Point Oysters and New Wine Tasting at Vignola is $25 per person, tax and gratuity included. Reservations are requested, and can be made by contacting Vignola at (207) 772-1330.

Discover why The Washington Post, Food Arts, Wine & Spirits, Down East and The Portland Press Herald all are recommending Vignola as a can't miss Maine experience.

For reservations at Vignola, call (207) 772-1330.

www.vignolamaine.com
10 Dana Street
Portland, Maine

#